PROTEST OF CITIZENS.

They Demand that the Toll-Gate Must

Pursuant to a call by a committee a meeting was held at Losey's hall, at the corner of Griggs avenue and South Division street, last evening by the residents of the First and Tenth wards control of that portion of the South Division street gravel road, between Hall street and Eurton avenue, within the jurisdiction of the city. The meeting was largely attended and the seutiment of those present had a businesslike liveliness. Alderman Carpenter of the Tenth ward, and Alderman Frost of the First ward, were there and offered their official assistance to their constituents conforming to the tentiments expressed. Alderman Stein of the First sent word that he would gladly be there but was unable would gladly be there but was unable to do so on account of makness. The meeting was presided over by G. H. Kirtland and A. P. Shriver acted as secretary. Speeches were made on the subject by E. D. Horton, A derman Carpenter and Frost, Dr. Watts, thar-man Kirtland Supervisor Skeets and thers. The aldermen placed their offigial action subject to the wishes of their tonshituents, and E. D. Horton in his remarks and that The Herald was ensitial action and action for the allerance was called.

WHERE THEIR MONEY GOES. Lumbermen Put Their Cash Where It

Will Grow. "Michigan lumbermen know where to place their surplus cash where it will count," said one of them yesterday. They have put it into mines, inte railroads, etgamships and timber in almost roads, stgamships and timber in almost every state in the union where there is timber worth investing money in, and while there are occasionally bad investments, as a rule they make it pay a good profit. I see that D. A. Biodgett the well known lumberman has taken out a permit to build a twelve-story building in Chicago and Arthur Hill of Sagnaw, and E. H. Pearson, formerly of the same place, are stockholders of the Globe National bank of Chicago. ## The Newest Patterns! The Best Qualities! The Standard Brands!

The products of the most celebrated manufacturers throughout the world.

Do not be misled by the wailings of unhappy imitators, who, like barnacles, try to attach themselves to our grand ship of state.

There is But One Linen Sale in Grand Rapids THIS WEEK.

And at this time we take the opportunity to reciprocate for the splendid patronage of the past year by not only putting the profits of this sale into the pockets of the people, but by giving them the whole benefit of our enormous whole-sale purchases.

Competitors Barred from Purchasing

Our invitation is general to all consumers, but we wish to state emphatically that we will not sell one dollar's worth of linens to stock up other dry goods houses, and shall adopt practical methods to prevent an imposition of this kind by other merchants.

Our efforts are for the sole and exclusive benefit of those who purchase linens to use themselves.

Ladies in the city are requested to call as early as possible in order to relieve the crowds that arrive later in the day from the smaller towns outside.
